

Duck Calls of Wahunsenakah Lodge #333

Vol. 96-4

Nov. 1996

National Order of the Arrow Conference Indiana University

The theme of this year's NOAC was "See the Dream, Live the Adventure". Over the previous month we had prepared and planned and finally our Lodge contingent lived it. Our contingent lived it. Our contingent consisted of 36 people and another 2 on staff.

We experienced training, several different competitions in sports, ceremonies, patch and shows. The training was excellent; done by experts from lodges all over America. For a change all the training a person attended was centered around a certain topic. Our lodge competed in basketball, volleyball, and swimming. Barry Green took second place in the 50m freestyle and first in the 50 m breaststroke. Wahunsenakah also sent a ceremonial team consisting of Chris Smith - Nutiket Chris Updike, Mike Keough, Meteu ,and Arch Smith - Kitchkinet, that did very well in the competition. The shows at NOAC were great. The opening show made a great kickoff for four days of fun. Each show got better and better with guests like Robert Gates, the former Director of the CIA and Miss Teenage America, Katie Beam. The closing show ended with a spectacular laser show that had everyone standing up and singing along.

All of NOAC was fantastic. Ask one of your brothers who went about it. Next time you should come join the fun at Iowa State in '98.

Chapter Reports

WICOMICO

Our chapter will now be holding its meeting of Grafton High School on the 1st Thursday of every month. The second annual Order of the Arrow Fall Camporee was held October 25-27 at the Old Carlton Farm about a mile north of Adner in Gloucester County. Scouts from Gloucester, Mathews, Poquoson, York, Newport News, Hampton, Williamsburg, Toano and Richmond attended. Over 70 patrols participated in this event. The opening ceremony featured skydivers, a fife and drum group and the Peasley Middle School band. Visitors were able to observe Scout activities such as bucket brigade, canoe race, arrow shoot, knife throw, log sawing, lashing, tent raising, log pull, knot line and other events. Special events during the weekend included radios for ham operators to contact other operators around the world and Civil War re-enactment. The Dragon Run Ruritan Club supplied hamburgers, hot dogs, chips and drinks.

The chapter has 4 members as troop staff for the Jamboree. There are 16 youth members attending. In addition, 8 adults are serving on Regional or National staff. Congratulations to these arrowmen who have chosen to have one of scouting's highest adventures.

National Leadership Seminar

On the last weekend in September, six brothers traveled to Ridge Crest Conf. Center in Black Mountain, NC to attend the Southern Region National Leadership Seminar. The youth attendees were Matt Singletary, Chris Tooley, Ryan Johnson, and Chris Smith. Mr. Slagle and Spence were the adults. NLS instructors were of the highest level - John Berry our Southern Region Chief and section chiefs from SR-7,6A,6B. The purpose of the training was to teach leadership skills to prospective lodge officers. The training should be of benefit to improving Wahunsenakah Lodge.

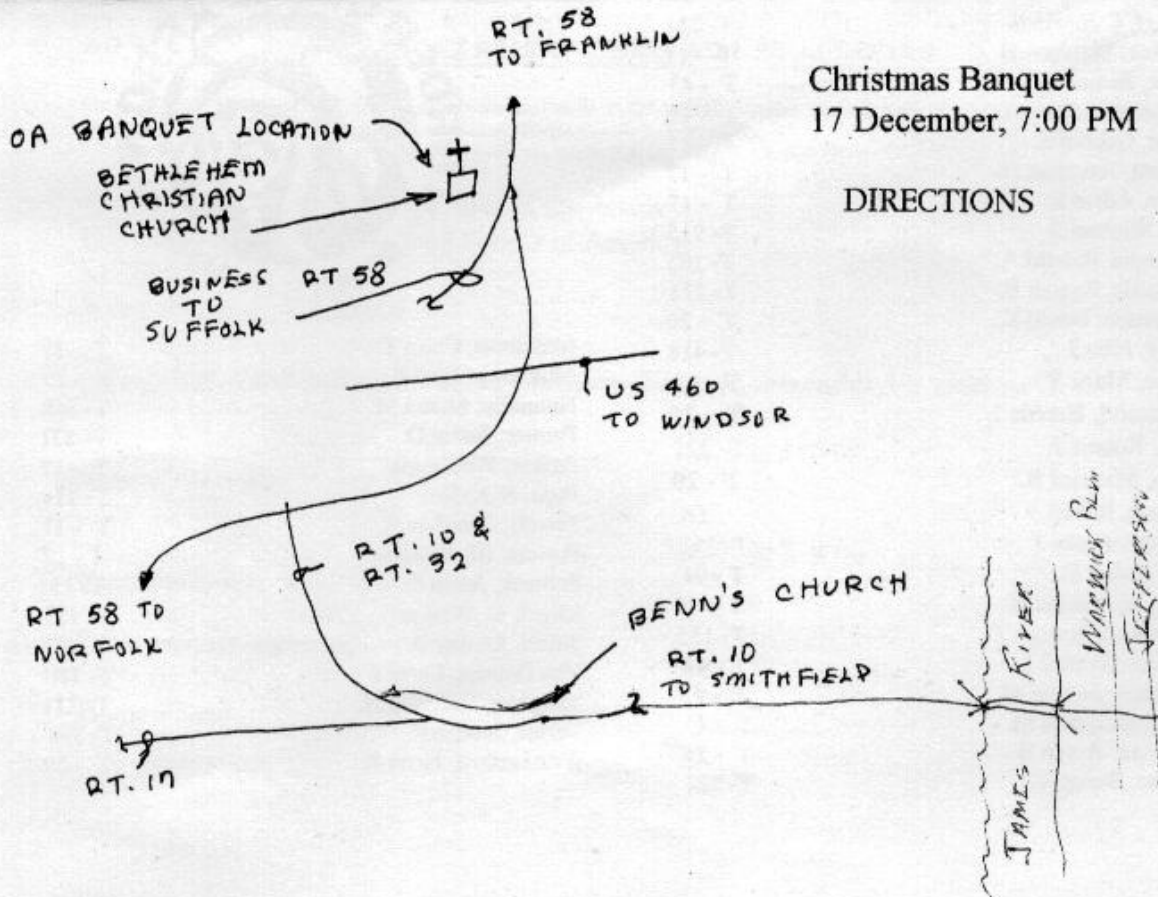

OA and the 1997 JAMBOREE

2. The Outdoor Skills Place Approximately 60 Arrowmen on staff providing Scouts the opportunity to test their camping and outdoor skills in a model campsite.
3. OA Indian Village -Approximately 60 Arrowmen show casing the American Indian culture and performing nightly.
4. Odyssey of the L a w Approximately 125 Arrowmen introducing moral values and character issues which are at the heart of the Scout law through an interactive entertainment educational event.
5. OA Arena Show- Approximately 18,000 Arrowmen will gather at a Saturday evening arena show to hear from National Officers.

To serve on the OA Service Corps, a youth must be 16 years of age by July 1 and not 21 by August 31, 1997. Your participation must be approved by your parents, legal guardian, Lodge Adviser and council Scout executive.

If you are interested in serving with the OA at the 1997 National Jamboree and did not fill out an OA Jamboree Staff Interest form at NOAC, call the national OA director at 972-580-2440.

Summer Ordeal

Lots of work was accomplished. One of the projects was the taking down of tents. The Kitchen Crew did their usual great job on meals. This ordeal was memorable for 41 new candidates who were inducted and the Brotherhood members. We had excellent ceremonies even though the Saturday night ceremonies had the rain dampen them. During the crackerbarrel after the ceremonies we had several brothers from Nawakwa, including the chief, visit us and share in our fellowship. The new brothers that have just joined Wahunsenakah Lodge are listed below. Welcome each to chapter activities and the lodge functions throughout the year. The importance of being involved has in OA activities permits the member to grow in leadership skills and give back to scouts through promoting camping in the council.
