CONCLAVE 1982

On April 23-25, thirty-six members of Kecoughtan Lodge attended the SE-1 Conclave at Rodney Scout Reservation in Maryland. Because of the recent area reorganization, this was the last conclave for SE-1. Kecoughtan is now in SE-8.

On Friday night, cabins were assigned to the delegations and all attended a rousing opening campfire. Saturday brought much excitement. Members attended informative training sessions throughout the morning, two of which were conducted by Kecoughtan's own Gary Cubbage and Tim Jennings. In the afternoon the Lodge's camping promotions presentation was entered in competition and received an honorable mention. The highlight of the day for many was the volleyball competition in which Kecoughtan recaptured the section championship, coming from behind in all three games. Saturday night brought the Conclave show, feast, and patch auction which no one will soon forget.

On Sunday, Section officer elections took place. Jeff Abernathy of Nawakwa Lodge was elected chief of SE-8. Much thanks and congratulations goes out to Nentego Lodge #20, for an exciting and memorable conclave.

FROM THE CHIEF'S TEPEE

KECOUGHTAN KRYER is published by the Kecoughtan Lodge, #463, Order of the Arrow, serving Peninsula Council, Boy Scouts of America; 11725 Jefferson Avenue, Newport News, Virginia 23606, at least four times per year. FROM THE FOREST... SMOKESIGNALS

Fellow Lodge Members,

I'd like to say that the ordeal was a big success. Also I'd like to thank all who attended the record breaking ordeal of 136 members with 30 ordeal candidates and 17 new Brotherhood members. Further more I'd like to extend a challenge to all members of the Lodge to attend the next ordeal and make it as record breaking.

Yours in Scouting,

Tim Jennings, Lodge Chief

EDITORS MINUTE

Hello all you Arrowmen out there! Last issue there wasn't room to put in the Editors Minute, so we will try do do better in the future.

Many exciting things have happened here at the Kryer. Gus Diggs, former Editor, has been replaced by Leigh Robertson, your new Editor. We hope to do better and to keep up the good work.

We have just finished the Winter Ordeal and next was the SE-1 Conclave. The Kryer will keep you posted on events and will report on all that occurs in the Lodge.

One thing I would like to see are letters to the Editor. Please send in stories, comments, advice or criticism.

EXTRA! EXTRA! Our new Lodge Advisor is Sam Clymens. Welcome to the team, Sam.

CHAPTER

KISKIACK

Our chapter has gotten off to a good start this year and we want to continue to make improvements. I think there are several ways we can improve the functions of our chapter. Attendance at OA functions is the most important since we not only provide service, have a good time, but, we communicate, a very important part of our chapter. I am asking each Troop to designate an OA communications representative for this purpose. Kyle Rogers is Communications Chairman of our chapter with Troy D'Agostino as his assistant. Kyle's phone number is 877-9587 and Troy's is 874-7408. Listen for or contact these OA members, they know what is going on in the chapter.

I urge all chapter members who have not sealed their membership in the OA by obtaining Brotherhood, to plan to do so soon.

Many of our OA members have not paid their dues yet, let's support our Lodge by our increased paid membership. Check with your OA brothers; urge them to do so if they have not already paid their dues.

We want to thank Mike Cartwright for his bare support in the last Ordeal Ceremony. Mike said "it was cool".

I am looking forward to seeing you at all of the chapter functions.

SUPPORT SME!

Greg Spencer
Kiskiack Chapter Chief

MATTAPONI

Mattaponi Chapter would like to report that we have had a successful chapter meeting in April, establishing a ceremonial team committee with an adult advisor. We've also established three unit election teams, complete with adult advisors to carry out elections in all three areas of the chapter.

LODGE COMMITTEES

DANCE TEAM

I would like to congratulate all new brothers. I would like to ask anybody who is interested in becoming a member of the dance team to please get in contact with me.

Curtis Rickard, 874-9210
Dance Team Chairman

CEREMONIES

We are in need of people to participate and help with the ceremonies. If you are interested, contact Mike Cartwright - 874-3529. You don't need a costume to be on the team.

Mike Cartwright - Chairman

CAMP PROMOTIONS

The camping promotions committee is in desperate need of a new Lodge Chairman. Without a volunteer this committee will really be hampered in its service to YOU, members of the troops of this council. Camp promotions is essential to the existence of any Lodge, so why must we push and plead for volunteers for this committee? You were elected into this order not for what you have done but what you will do. Share the burden of the Lodge and volunteer for the camping promotions committee!! Contact either Tim Jennings 877-1625 or Joe Hudgins 898-5234.

Ad-Hoc Committee

WE NEED VOLUNTEERS!!

This committee needs volunteers to join our committee. Please phone Committee Chairman - David Bennett at 851-4709 or David Saunders at 851-7106.

Winter Ordeal

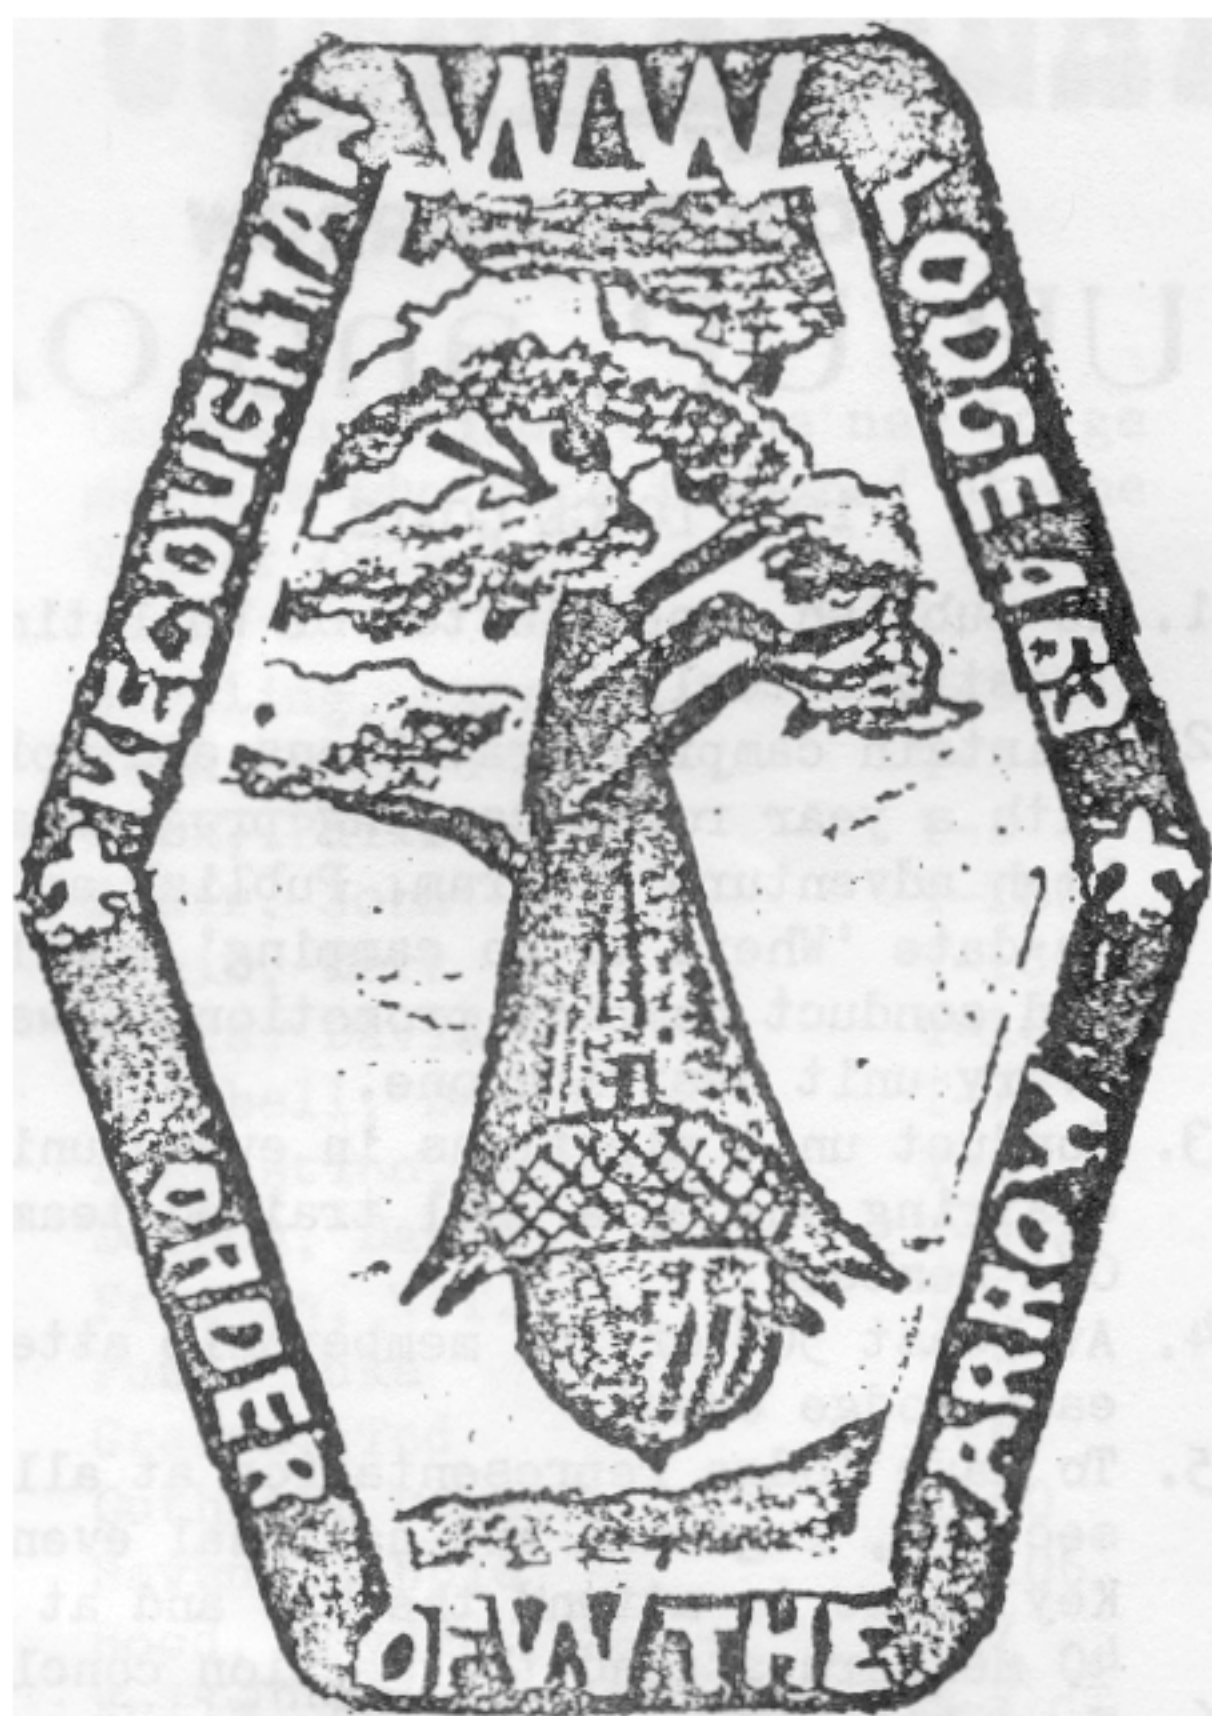

The Winter Ordeal this year was good. We had a large number of people who were candidates and our elangomats did a great job.

The Cooking Committee as usual did a good job feeding us at all meals and cracker barrels, too. The meals we had were tasty and Saturday dinner was chicken with potatoes and gravy.

Everybody who came up worked hard and did a good job at fixing up the camp in spite of mud and rain. Digging ditches, filling in potholes, and cleaning the warehouse were some of the jobs completed.

Saturday night a patch auction was held and the patches went like hotcakes.

All in all it was a great experience and I would like to thank all who came.

CHALLENGE

CHALLENGE TO THE LODGE from Walt Deal, Lodge Advisor

My fellow Arrowmen, I, as advisor to the Kecoughtan Lodge, challenge each and every brother during 1982 to:

Participate in every Lodge function that you can.

That each and every Ordeal member of the Lodge strive to reach Brotherhood status.

Wear the Scout uniform proudly and properly at all time.

Set an example for other Scouts and Scouters.

Keep the already high standards of Kecoughtan Lodge up so that we can attain the National Honor Lodge status next year.

I leave you, my brothers, with these thoughts and ask that each of you strive to meet those challenges before you.
