1993 OA RENDEZVOUS

For those Arrowmen that attended the 1993 National Jamboree, this was an opportunity to see an event of a lifetime. Over 15,000 members of the Order of the Arrow assembled in the arena to see Brian Beaverstock, the 1993 National Chief and other members of the National Board. The show was great and reaffirmed the ideals of the Order of the Arrow.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: Is it proper to wear an Order of the Arrow sash at the same time you are wearing a merit badge sash?

A: The current "Insignia Guide" of the Boy Scouts of America, cat. #3064 states: "The OA sash is not worn with the merit badge sash."

Q: Is it true that legend strips are not to be worn on the OA sash?

A: Again, the current insignia guide of the Boy Scouts of America states: "Legend strips or sash backs are not official and may not be worn on the sash or with the uniform." The 1992 edition of the OA Handbook states on page 59: "Nothing is to be worn on the sash, including signatures, patches of any kind, pins, or legends." The only exceptions are the 50th and 60th anniversary awards for those who have earned them.

WORDS FROM THE ADVISOR

Fellow Arrowmen. We have a lot going on in Chanco Lodge and we need everyone's support with the upcoming Induction of the weekend of 5-7 November 1993 at Camp Chickahominy and the Christmas Banquet on 13 December 1993 in Franklin.

Your Lodge officers will be attending the Council of Chiefs meeting on 23 October 1993 at the Old North State Scout Reservation, Browns Summit, North Carolina.

We need all Brotherhood candidates to come to the Induction in November, so that we can achieve the correct number of conversions to attain Honor Lodge for this year. All Brotherhood candidates please seal your membership in Chanco Lodge and the Order of the Arrow.

The only way Chanco will be strong is with the support of all of its members pulling together and working to make our Lodge the best in our section.

Anyone wishing to run for an office in Chanco needs to contact me before the elections at the Induction. We need to continue to have strong leadership in our Lodge.

Look forward to seeing everyone at the Induction and Christmas Banquet.

Robert Baker, Lodge Advisor
