A proud member of service to Colonial Virginia Council, Newport News, VA

NOAC is blast for Wahunsenakah!

On Friday July 27, 2002, 28 members of Wahunsenakah lodge left the Scout Service Office in Newport News to attend The National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC), at the University of Indiana in Bloomington, Indiana.

Friday night the contingents spent the night at Camp Arrowhead right outside of Hunington, West Virginia. Saturday morning they arose for another long journey to Bloomington, Indiana. They arrived there on Saturday and settled in the dorms of the University of Indiana.

During the next four days at NOAC, our lodge participated in numerous events, and competitions against lodges from all over the United States. These events included: the "Spirit Award", dancing, golf, and the Goodman 500 (the pinewood derby for scouts and scouters), all of which Wahunsenakah placed in.

The 28 arrowmen had an awesome time at NOAC 2002. You have the chance to experience NOAC for yourself in July of 2004. It will be held in Ames, Iowa. It is anticipated that we will travel by train or plane due the distance involved. If you would like to attend NOAC 2004 start saving about $25.00 a month! Registration will most likely begin in December 2003. SEE YOU IN 2004!

Lodge History

In March, 1995 the Lodge Chiefs of Chanco Lodge #483, and Kecoughtan Lodge #463 began a series of meetings that would result in the formation of a new lodge. On January 1st, 1996 Wahunsenakah Lodge #333 was born under the leadership of the Chiefs of the former Chanco and Kecoughtan Lodges as co-chiefs. The first Lodge elections were held at the Spring Ordeal in May of that first year.

The name Wahunsenakah which is Chief Powhatan's given name was chosen to honor the great chief of the Powhatan Confederacy whose home was located near the York River. A duck was chosen as the totem of the lodge. Due to the large number of native and migratory ducks found in the area, it was decided that a particular species would not be selected, however, the mallard has become the default totem.

We all got into the cheers as we waited for everyone to get into the auditorium for the opening show.

It didn't take long for some to try and get some sleep 'banked up' before arriving.

The team gets started.

We're here, so this is what's up

There was indoor sports?

As the sun went down, we gathered for the opening show

A little game of touch

which included tomahawk throw

Saturday began with breakfast and was followed by several training sessions

Horseshoe pitching

that the brothers could attend. There was training about Service,

Elangomats and regalia.

The Iron Duck relay competitio

Our ceremonies team got checked in for their evaluation.

Saturday's lunch was provided by Tasty Critters

Saturday we were visited by Miss Teen Isle of Wight

Order of the Arrow
Wahunsenakah Lodge #333
Brotherhood Evaluation Requirements

- Know the Obligation and the Order of the Arrow song, both of which appear below.
2. Know the Admonition, the Sign of Ordeal Membership, and the Handclasp. (If you do not remember them, ask a Brotherhood member either before or at the event you choose to be evaluated for Brotherhood.)
 3. Remain registered in Scouting and, during a period of at least 10 months after undergoing your Ordeal, strive to fulfill your obligation by continuing and expanding your services to your own unit.
 4. Remain registered in the Order of the Arrow and keep your dues paid. Be aware that acceptance of Brotherhood membership involves an obligation to the Wahunsenakah Lodge and, therefore, develop a concrete idea of how you plan to fulfill this obligation.
 5. If, after at least 10 months since undergoing your Ordeal, you feel that you are meeting all of the above requirements and earnestly feel that you are prepared for the Brotherhood, you must either explain the following to the Lodge Brother who evaluates you or you must write a letter to the Lodge Membership Secretary in which you:
 - Explain what you think the Obligation means;
Describe how you have been fulfilling this Obligation in your Troop and in your daily life, and how you have used your understanding of the traditions of the Ordeal to aid you in your service.
 - Describe the specific plans you have for rendering service to the Wahunsenakah Lodge in fulfillment of the new pledge you expect to take.

The above described letter should accompany your reservation and fees for the Ordeal weekend at which you wish to take your Brotherhood test and accept the additional obligation of the Brotherhood.

“The Brotherhood ceremony is the continuation and conclusion of the Order of the Arrow Induction.” E. Urner Goodman

The Obligation

I do hereby promise, on my honor as a Scout that I will always and faithfully observe and preserve the traditions of the Order of the Arrow, Wimachtendienk, Wingolauchsik, Witahemui. I will always regard the ties of Brotherhood as lasting and will seek to preserve a cheerful spirit, even in the midst of irksome task and weighty responsibilities, and will endeavor, so far as in my power lies, to be unselfish in service and devotion to the welfare of others.

Order of the Arrow Official Song (Words by E. Urner Goodman)

Firm bound in Brotherhood, gather the clan.
That cheerful service brings to fellow man.
Circle our council fire. Weld tightly every link,
that binds us in Brotherhood,
Wimachtendienk.

One other task was to move the large tent from the Staff site to the dining hall for use during summer camp.

Even some of the adults gave a hand in setting the stakes.

Saturday afternoon, the candidates for lodge office had the opportunity to answer any questions that the brothers might have had.

We even got some important plumbing repairs taken care of.

the art that they are trying to learn

During lunch, Mr. Smith recognized our second Founder's Award recipient for 2001 who had been out of town during the Winter Banquet and Winter Ordeal.

Friday night, after the Pre-Ordeal Ceremony, the brothers gathered for some fellowship and food.

It didn't take long after leaving for home that the ducks were out.

After the elections, the dance team members demonstrated some of what they have learned.

A few of our 63 New Ordeal members

One of the jobs for the weekend, was digging a trench for a new phone line, unfortunately the rains later in the morning made the job impossible.

Saturday morning, before the rains, we managed to set up a number of the camps tents.

Sunday morning, the new officers were inducted into their offices.

A sampling of the 26 members who received brotherhood membership during the weekend.

and not only made a showing

Our dancers also made a show

they also learned more about

The new lodge officers for 2002-C

This years fall fellowship found a new venue. The brothers gathered the FFA camp outside Smithfield for this years Fall Fellowship. Even though drizzle had been the standard weather through Friday morning, however the weather cleared just in time for the event. Friday night the brothers had fun with bobbing for apples, karaoke, putt-put and car bashing. Saturday was a series of training sessions and the Iron Duck relay which had a few different activities this year. Great Fall Fellowship and Great Fun.

Friday night we had activities such as bobbing for apples..

...Karaoke...

and a rock wall to climb.

..Putt-Put...

Sunday morning we had a chapel service followed by a Lodge meeting and home.

Followed by a campfire ceremony with everyone putting as much damage...

until the car was pretty much a mangled mess.

After the events of the day, everyone enjoyed dinner.

Of course, there was also the usual Pinochle game.

With the rain we had on Thursday and Friday, Saturday morning sunrise promised good weather.

Wahunsenakah Lodge Website

The lodge maintains an active website at <http://www.cvcboyscouts.org/oa/>. On the website, you can access the latest lodge news about past and upcoming events, download registration forms, link to other Order of the Arrow websites, and more. Perhaps most importantly, you can sign up to become a part of the lodge's email list. For users of this service, a few simple rules must be followed. First, register through the website. Second, keep the lodge informed of changes to email addresses. Third, since messages are sent out as blind carbon copies, filters need to be set to accept mail from the lodge's email address of wahunsenakahlodge@hotmail.com. Signing up for the lodge's email list means that you will receive occasional reminders about upcoming lodge events and registration deadlines. Your email address will not be shared with anyone else.
