Hurricane Isabel Hits Virginia Hard.

Worst Hurricane in over 100 Years.

Hurricane Isabel and its aftermath have put the state of Virginia, through a lot, Many have lost homes and shared hardships from Isabel.

Isabel was the size of Colorado, packed hurricane- force gusts ranging from 74 to 107 miles per hour. Bring thousands of trees down in yards and roads. Extraordinary amount of rain-washes away piers and anything in it way.

The storm knocked out 1.8 million businesses and homes from electric power, roads blocked trees fell on homes and flooded many areas. This has to be the worst storm in 100 years or more.

Like most places, Camp Chickahominy was hit hard, where it has closed the camp till this winter or spring. The insurance claim adjuster has looked at the camp and now the council is working on a plan to get the roads back open.

The Lodge Website, was the first to put out the word about camp and asking folks to take care of your families and homes first. In due time, we will have the right folks up at camp to review the damage and to come up with a plan.

Hundreds of trees down or partially down throughout the camp. You can not tell where the roads are sometimes for all the trees down on the roads. The council reported, that the Following buildings are without damage, Ranger House, Warehouse, Administration Building, Dinning Hall, Powhatan Shelter, Pebbles Aquatics Building, Scout Craft Shelter, Rifle Range, Swimming Pool (minor fence damage only) and Boating Area. In the COPE area, the climbing tower and small climbing wall are both okay, but the rest of the COPE area has major damage. The rest of the building and shelters and several of the campsite pit latrines, picnic tables and tent platforms have damage. While most have structural damage, most of them are repairable.

No building off of their foundations and Power was restored a few days after the storm. Ranger Joe, has turned some of the areas off for safety.

Scout Executive Dick Collins and Ranger Joe, have walked the camp and working on a plan to get us back in camp as soon as it is safe for all of us to enjoy the camp. Till then, Camp Chickahominy will have to stay closed to everyone until it is safe. We cannot take the chance of anyone getting hurt. The council will let the lodge know when and how it can help with camp. Till then, Please stay out of camp. Thanks to Herb Smith and this reporter, This newsletter will have a few pictures of the camp for you to see. These pictures show examples of what camp looked like, a few days after Isabel came knocking on the door of our Camp Chickahominy.

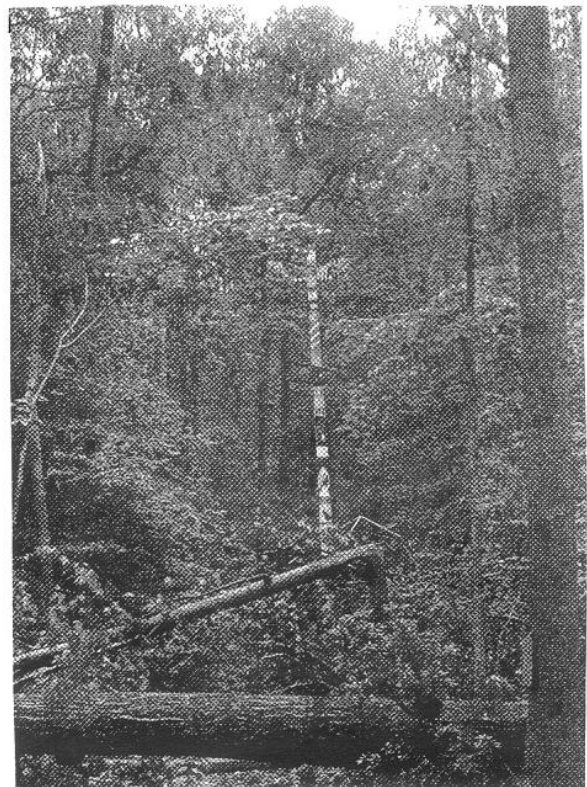

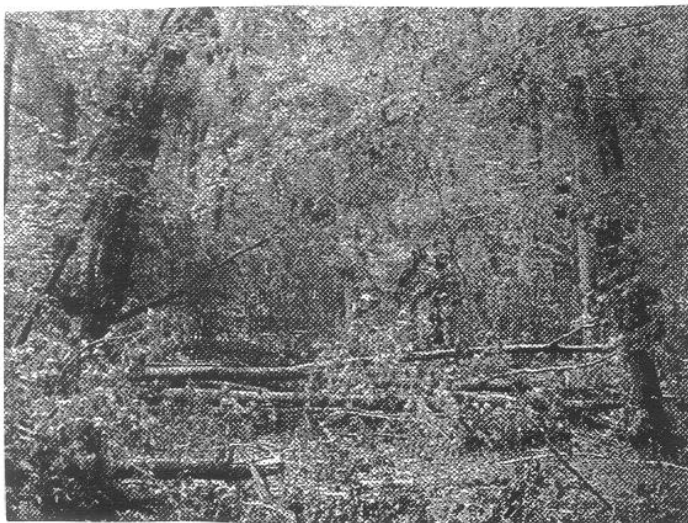

Ranger Joe Report to the Lodge

Sandy and I would like to thank everyone for all the well wishes with Shawn and all. As if a newborn isn't enough, then comes "Izzy" to Camp. We thankfully made it through, and now look towards the clean up. As you already may know, Camp Chickahominy is closed to all comers until further notice. I realize many people are anxious as I, to get camp up and running, but what everyone needs to understand is that we were really hit hard and camp is not very safe at this time.

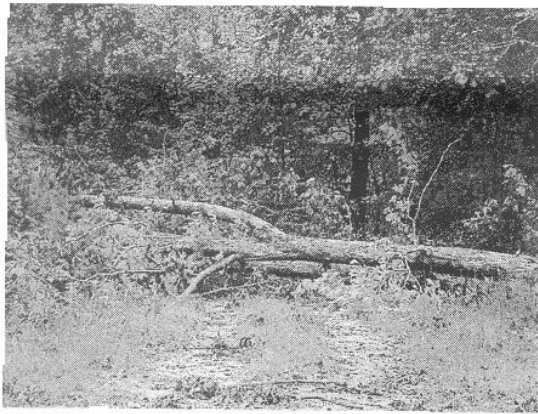

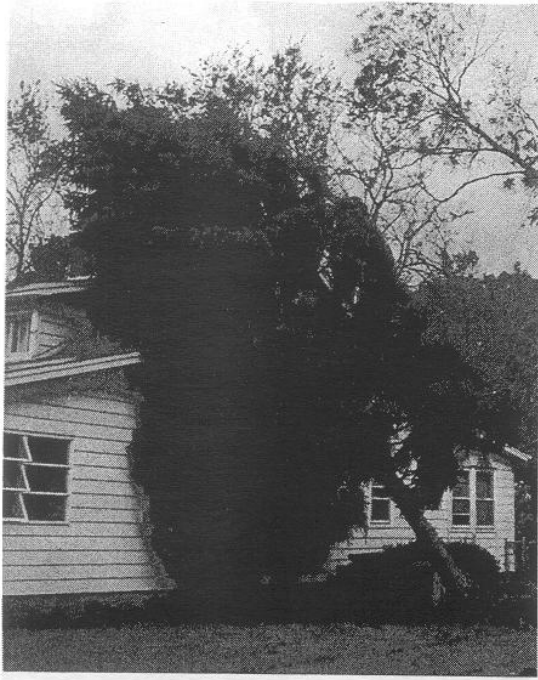

The trees that are blocking the roads and trails are not so much the problem. There are many tree limbs and leaning trees or what we call window makers all over the camp. Each day I walk the property, I hear new limbs and trees coming down. It may seem slow, but we are currently making plans to carefully and safely open Camp Chickahominy up again. Remember we have over 700 acres to make safe before next summer's camping season and safety is the priority. We will be making every effort to keep everyone in touch with the progress we are making and any workdays that will soon be scheduled. Later, as we get going on this task, I will be asking for help, but please wait for me to ask so I can make sure it is safe for our Scouts and Leaders.

Fall Fellowship 2003

This year's Second Annual Fall Fellowship found a new venue. The brothers gathered at FFA/FHA Camp in Isle of Wright County near Smithfield.

The youth enjoyed car bashing as a few outsiders tried to join in the fun.

The boys had a good time and the adults enjoyed the quiet time in the bunkhouses.

A rededication of the order was done at the campfire ring, along with some Indian Dancing.

After going to the Cracker Barrel and eating all the goodies put out, it was time for bed.

Some stayed up all night playing games in the bunkhouse.

The next morning, the entire brother's went to the Opening Ceremony and ate Breakfast.

After breakfast, the day started off with a few training sessions and fellowship time.

Jetting around to meet the entire brother's at the event was my hardest thing to get done.

Lunchtime came and we were ready to eat, as the big day event was about to begin.

One of the afternoon events, was a Scavenger Hunt, where the adults and youth had to find a few items to win. The Youth and Adult Activities was most of the day, and then it was time for the 2nd annual iron duck relay by chapters.

This was a lot of fun for us and boy was I ready to take a nap after this event.

After getting clean up and ready for dinner, We met at the river front to retreat of the flag and gather as a lodge to remember our brother whom past away, George Claar.

The cooking crew had a wonderful meal waiting on us to eat.

After eating supper, we all went to the campfire for the evening show.

After the show, we then went to the dining hall for the cracker barrel and watch auction for youth.

Some of us, took some snack's with us to the bunkhouse, to watch the World Series of the Yankees vs. the Marlins. Some were cheering for the Yankees and some cheering for the Marlins. What a game it was back and forth the lead changed. As the Marlins won the game and then the World Series.

Sunday started off the morning with a continental breakfast in the dinning hall, followed by a Chapel Service at the River Front Parade Field.

All the chapter's had a chapter meeting, which was followed by the lodge business meeting. Then we were all off for home after enjoying the fun time of being boys.

We worked on various tasks at Skyanchor Camp in Surry County, and were a tired but Satisfied group of brothers at the end of the day. We cleared the entrance to the camp of fallen trees and branches, straightened and staked about 8 cedars that had blown over, cut dangerously hanging trees, and just generally enjoyed a lot of fellowship and cheerful service. If you weren't there, you missed a great day!

PaPa Turtle supplied pizzas for lunch, and everybody polished them off in quick order.

MEMORIES OF AN ORDEALIE

Friday was a time of anticipation. The time finally came that I had dreamed about and waited for with excitement. When I first arrived at camp, and the apprehension started to set in. A concern over the unknown began to mount. Not knowing what was about to happen brought an uneasy feeling. Sure I knew what other scouts had told me about being out at night, no talking, and of course the hard work. However, this was still unsettling because of the unknowns. The strangers, even though they were Arrowmen, were going to take me off to some unknown place and do undreamable acts to me.

Kichkinet, the guide, seem like some sort of helpful one. Maybe he was truly going to help along the trail - he said so anyway. The Elangomat might be OK, at least he was always with us, for good or bad. He made us stay together, gave abrupt instructions, and tries to keep us busy, He was the one familiar face that stayed around when everyone else was coming and going, at what?, I do not know.

The meals were not so bad, but if they wanted us to do all that work, they should have fed us better. Keeping quiet was probably the most difficult thing to do. Every now and then a word gets out of your mouth. Most of the time you catch yourself in mid-sentence, but other times its out before you know what happened. There were times of boredom. You would think that they could keep you busy so that time would pass faster. It seems disorganized, but they must have known what they were doing since they have done it all before.

There were some times when I got to think about everything going on around me. There was a certain warm feeling. I thought about how I got there - doing what was necessary to advance in scouting and working with the patrol. The Ordeal seems like some sort of reward for all of that.

When they let me clean up and get ready for the ceremony, the tiredness really sunk in. All of this strange activity and people began to wear on me. The other candidates were really dragging. I hoped it wouldn't go on much longer. The little bit of food for dinner was disappointing, but at that point it didn't really matter. All I wanted to do is to get through this ceremony and go to bed. It seems like waiting and not knowing what is next is the real Ordeal.

The ceremony was mysterious. I had never seen anything like it - the candles, costumes, the unknown faces on the hill, and the sashes hanging on a rail. I didn't know what to do when these Indians direct me to do so many things. There seemed to be only darkness, the arrow, and the faces behind me. It was hard to listen to all the instructions. I felt like I was stumbling through the ceremony, but realized it was important that I follow everything, because I felt they might single me out to do something. I was concerned that I might not respond quickly, and would be embarrassing.

When the Chief shook my hand, it seemed like I had finally made it. Being one of the few maked me feel special, being chosen then began to have meaning. I was overwhelmed. The fire gave me a certain high. What a moment - I was chosen to be honored and its great! Just wait to see those guys back at the troop when they see me. All of a sudden the faces behind me rushed down to the circle to join in the singing of the song. Everyone was wearing the sash. Everyone was smiling and shaking hands. Relief sets in and it was all downhill from there. I can take anything now. I didn't know I could meet the challenge, but it really wasn't that hard. I can see that anyone can make it if they just try.

This is a big responsibility. I wonder if I'm up to it? I might be chosen, but this is a big job. They expect me to do a lot. One thing is for sure, when I go back to the troop I want to be a better scout. Putting that flap on means the others expect more from me and I am going to deliver.

ORDER OF THE ARROW AT PHILMONT.

The Order of the Arrow is offering you an opportunity to join other Arrowmen in cheerful service and the formation of lasting brotherhood on the trails of Philmont Scout Ranch. Under the direction of the Philmont Conservation Department, experienced Philmont staff members with strong Order of the Arrow backgrounds will lead participants on the two week trail crew and trek.

The program is a fourteen day experience. The first week focuses on trail construction and maintenance under the guidance of Philmont trail crew foremen. The second week is a seven day backpacking trek that is designed by the participants. The program is not simply building trail and hiking though, the OA Trail Crew is ultimately a journey that challenges Scouts mentally, physically, and spiritually.

Trail building is tough. The worksite experience is full of long, strenuous days requiring a great deal of physical effort. Participants are expected to work with great diligence as the trail that is being built is designed to last over 75 years and protect the beautiful landscape of Philmont Scout Ranch. Other than trail building techniques, Scouts will strengthen their leadership skills, learn advanced wilderness and low-impact camping skills, observe and participate in group wilderness safety, good judgment, and motivation activities, and receive special OA instruction.

The project's mission is to maintain, reinforce, and enhance the purpose of the Order of the Arrow by using Scout camping traditions. Participants are expected to use their experience to benefit their troop, chapter, lodge and council programs. Camping is a method of Scouting that enhances and builds stronger programs and people.

Brotherhood Membership

Lodge Goals and Where we are Today

1. Participation - The lodge needs for more of our brothers to support each event that the lodge has. A few of our events have had low participation. Chapter Meetings are important to the lodge, to get the word out. We as a lodge need to work to get more participation out of the youth/adults of the lodge.
2. Brotherhood Conversion by 40% - If we are going to make this goal, we need for all our ordeal brothers, who have been with the lodge 10 months since under going your ordeal, to review the requirements for brotherhood. Chapter Chiefs, help your brothers with the requirements and help them seal their membership in our order.
3. Membership – We need for each Chapter to check with all your units in your district and see which units meet the requirements for membership in our lodge.
4. Order of the Arrow Troop Reps. – Do all our units have at least one person promoting the lodge events, meaning, brotherhood and camping.
5. Fall Fellowship – We have met this goal. It was a time of fun and getting to know your brothers.
6. Camping Promotions and Unit Elections – Each chapter needs to look at this hard. We set a goal very high, but I think we can do it, if your Camping Promotion Teams/ Unit Election Teams, hit all the units in your district. As a lodge, this is our main goal to meet as a lodge.
7. Labor for Service Day and Beaver Days – Doing a good job here to come out and support service days. One Day Service, went very well for the lodge as a whole. I want to thank all who helped clean up from Isabel. I have heard good things about helping your neighbors and community. Thank God for the Boy Scouts, to come through.
8. Camping Promotions – We need to get our Lodge Where to go Camping Guide out to the units and help promote the best camp in Virginia, Camp Chickahominy.
9. Communications – This is got to be improved as a whole. We have a web site and newsletter that looks very good, but we are not supporting this committee, as a whole. I think as a lodge, we can do better to keep the web site updated and the newsletter. I need youth members to write articles for the web site and newsletter. We each need to take a hard look at getting information to the web site and duck calls. Lets take five minutes to write up what our chapters are doing and yes lodge reports from the officers too.

National Conference 2004
