Wahunsenakah Lodge #333 Say's Good-bye to Camp Chickahominy at it's Last Ordeal at the camp.

The Summer Ordeal September 10 -12 got off to a great start. As the new candidates and brothers arrived to Camp Chickahominy, all knew this would be the last time, we would come together as a lodge at this camp we have used for 38 years as Kecoughtan Lodge, Chanco Lodge and Wahunsenakah Lodge. It is like loosing an old friend.

We checked in with Mr. Carl Horne and went to our campsite to put up the tent for the weekend. The award winning Indication Team was about to get the last Pre-Ordeal Ceremony started. 46 New Candidates were about to pre-take in the last ordeal at Camp Chickahominy. The Ceremony went well, as the 46 Ordeal Candidates were carried off into the moonlight sky, to start the Ordeal, not knowing what was ahead of them.

The next day, we all went to breakfast and got ready for the day of packing up the trailers to carry all the camp equipment to the new camp. Ranger Joe gave us our task and we went out to get it done for him. The Trailers were getting full by the candidates and brothers. We need that apart of our camp was going to a new home.

Ranger Joe was very happy with the work getting done and the trailers full of the gear that he is taking to the new camp. I could have not done this, without the help of Wahunsenakah Lodge. Thanks for all the help over the past few years that I have been ranger. Looking forward to working with you at the new camp.

By Lunch, most of the work was done and we were ready for the hamburger's cooked on the grill by the cooking committee. Man they know how to cook a burger better then most fast food places. After lunch, the brotherhood committee did their last brotherhood evaluation of brothers wanting to learn more of the order. 19 brothers took the challenge of brotherhood. After all the work got done, the award winning dance team did us a show and they did a great job.

Now it was time for dinner and we all met at the dining hall to lower the flag and get ready to eat the last steak dinner at camp.

The steaks were hot off the grill with all the trimmings to go with a good steak.

After dinner, we all went to the Ordeal and Brotherhood Ceremonies.

The brotherhood ring was ready and the guides went out of the ring to find 19 brothers outside of our ring wanting to seek the knowledge of the brotherhood. We made ready for them to join us and to seal their membership in our order. You can see all the names in this newsletter, under Last Brotherhood at Camp CHX. To our new brotherhood brothers, Well Done and Congregations.

Now, it is time for the Council Ring of Ordeal to start. From over the hill, 46 candidates came to join our order, as they all passed the test of our ordeal. You can see all the names in this newsletter, under Last Ordeal at Camp CHX. Two Pages with names and pictures of our new members. Congregations and Welcome to Wahunsenakah Lodge 333.

After all the Ceremonies were complete and the fire was out. We all went to get a bite to eat at the cracker-barrel. There was a lot of food for the last cracker-barrel at Camp Chickahominy.

Hard to believe that it has come to an end.

The next morning everyone went to breakfast and headed down to the chapel area for the last chapel service at camp. God makes us all special and remember, God does not make Junk.

Time to go to the Chapter Meetings, Wicomico, Kiskiack, Nottoway, Pamunkey, Piankatank and Nansemond Chapters were all ready to begin the chapter business.

After walking around the different chapter meetings, I could see that the chapters were getting down to business and asking for help in the chapter. Give your chapter a hand, the chapter chief cannot do it by himself. Find out how you can help.

Now it is time for the called Lodge Business Meeting of the entire lodge together in the Mess Hall.

Lodge Chief Mat Stern went over the business of the lodge and then our Lodge Advisor Mac, give us his Lodge Advisor Minute. Mac always has a wise word for all the brothers to hear.

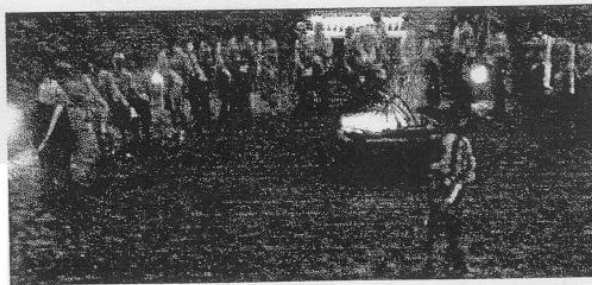

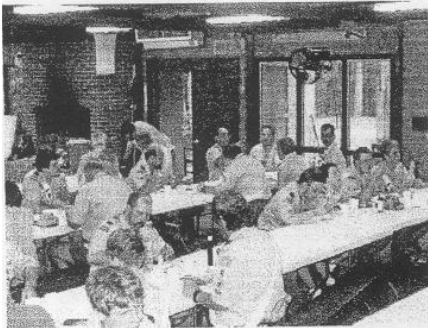

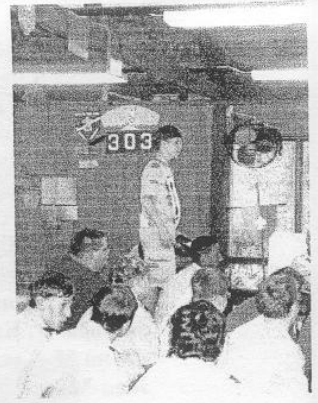

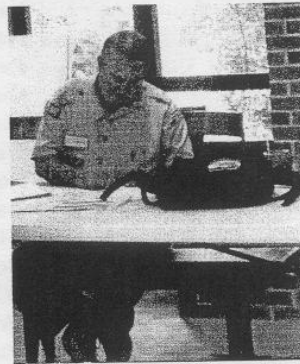

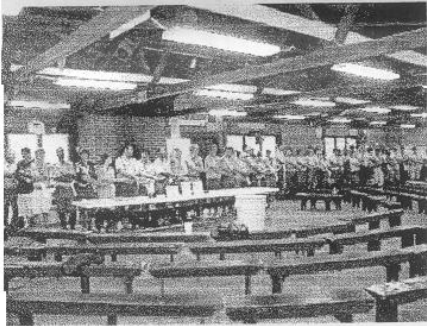

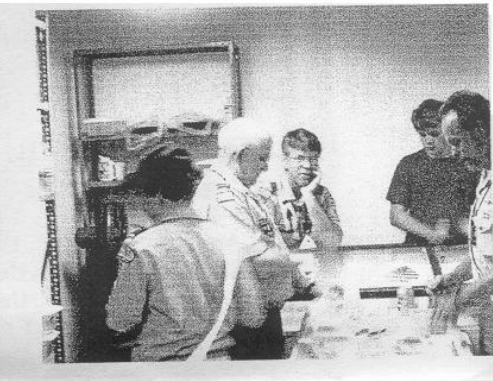

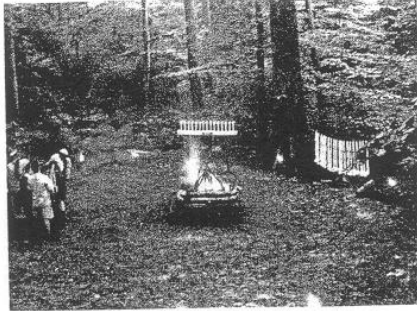

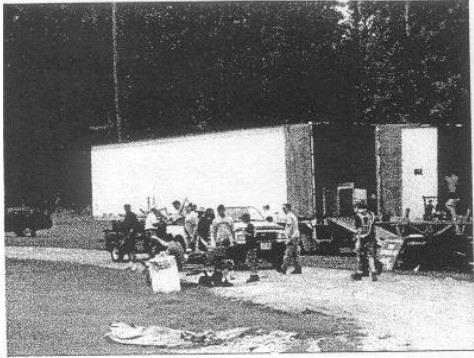

Then we all circled up in the dining hall for the last time and song our order's song.

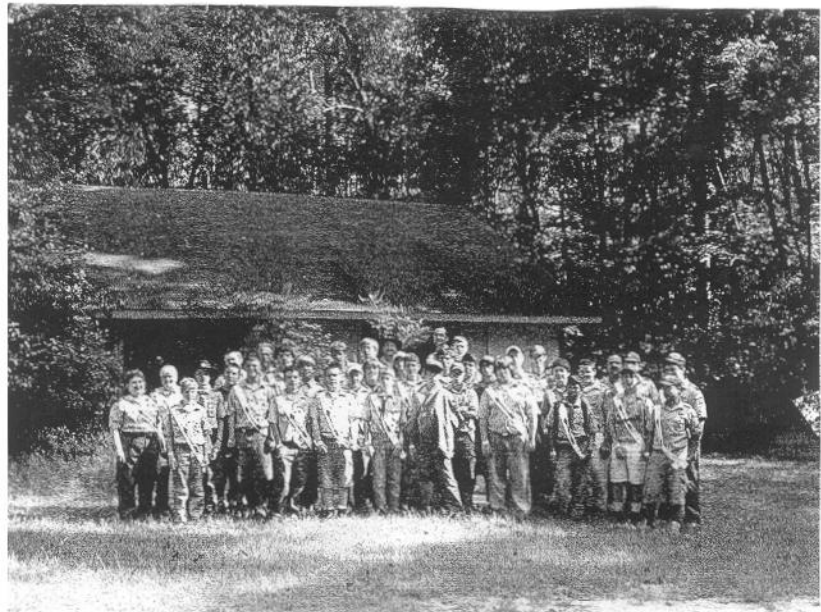

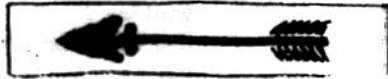

Then everyone left camp thinking, what is it going to be like in the new camp?

I also want to report a sad note, that some scouts did not act like arrowmen, and left trash for Ranger Joe to pick up in the dining hall and campsites. Joe is not our mother and he should not have this. When our lodge does a lot of good things, it takes one bad thing to change all the good that we do as a lodge.

Remember Your Oath: A scout is clean and always leaves camp better than he finds it. I hope to never hear about scouts trashing the camp again. It is your Oath to do your best and to help other people at all times. Get the word out to whomever, that we do not want this to happen again. How is this going to look going into a new camp? Think About it and ask yourself, did I miss it up for the lodge?

NOAC 2004 Report

The lodges sent a whole lodge contingent to NOAC and everyone came back energized and ready to get going with some new information and fresh new ideas. The training was excellent again as usual and the lodge was well represented. In the Ceremonies Competition, Our Pre-Ordeal team, made up of Matt Stearn, Brock Kannan, Nat Hussell, and Marcus Macowski was recognized as a National Honor Team. This is the first time that a ceremonies team of Wahunsenakah has ranked this high. Our dance team did very well too. Nat Brown and Matt Athayde ranked in the top 30 in traditiona; and Martin Senega made it to the second round in grass dance. Congratulations to all who attended and thank you to the adults who went along and provided the guidance needed. Also, thanks to the Booth's who drive the van with all our stuff for the NOAC.
